Live Fire Shoot House Instructor

November 6-10, 2017

Mid-South Institute (Lake Comorant, Mississippi)

This five-day live fire shoot house instructors course has been designed to provide officers with the knowledge, skill sets, safety protocols, materials and instructor procedures to manage and safely conduct high risk police operations in a live fire shoot house environment.

Prerequisite: Officers attending should be experienced instructors, certified as firearms instructors and proficient in high risk police techniques & tactics such as: Rapid Deployment; Police Urban Tactics; Warrant Service and Building Clearing type operations. Firearms proficiency and capabilities are also required. This is not a beginner's course!

Course curriculum:

The emphasis of the course will be how to safely set-up, manage and run live fire scenarios in a shoot house environment. Students must demonstrate their proficiency in these areas by passing a written test, conducting safety briefings and inspections, setting up targets and scenarios, as well as running each live fire station. Live fire scenarios will include active threat; CQB; room clearing; and hostage rescue scenarios for patrol and SWAT applications. A Live Fire Shoot House Instructor Certificate will be issued to those who pass the written test and successfully demonstrate their ability to safely conduct live fire shoot house training.

Each training participant is required to bring the following equipment:
