

Oak Lawn Police

Government Training Institute

Strategic Dynamics

Vision Strategic Command College Series

Managing Risks and Developing Course of Action in Operations and Training (TC2)

In December the Oak Lawn Illinois Police Department is hosting the Tactical Command and Leadership TC2 Session of the Vision Strategic Command College. This course is designed to reduce risk and develop high-performance capabilities in law enforcement agencies.

While this course is designed specifically to provide tactical commanders and team leaders with tools to manage risk in tense, uncertain, and rapidly evolving environments, the material learned in this training will also greatly benefit the students in understanding the risks encountered by leaders in patrol, detective, detention, and narcotics divisions. All are welcome and encouraged to attend. The target audience includes, agency heads, tactical commanders, tactical team leaders and assistant team leaders, patrol, narcotics, detention and detective supervisors, agency risk managers and legal advisors.

This course is a pre-requisite for the remaining sessions in the Vision Strategic Command College.

Registration is limited to the first 40 students enrolled.

Cost - $650

Dates – December 5th – 7th, 2017

Location - Oak Lawn Police Department - 9446 S. Raymond Avenue, Oak Lawn, Illinois 60453

You can find more information on this course by visiting our website:

<http://www.gtitraining.org/course-tactical-command-and-leadership-systems.htm>

Or contact Roger Heaton at roger@gtitraining.org or (803) 707-2180 for course specifics or to register for the course.