Apprehending Fleeing Suspects

A Training Program for All Law Enforcement Officers

Friday, 04 May 2018

DoubleTree - Oak Brook

1909 Spring Rd., Oak Brook, IL

8:30 am – 4:30 pm

Topics that will be discussed are current trends being used by suspects as they attempt to evade law enforcement and the techniques and tactics that officers and incident commanders can use to contain and capture criminals.

Jack H. Schonely served in law enforcement for over 30 years. He was a member of the Los Angeles Police Department since 1983 and was assigned to the Air Support Division as a pilot. Jack is a nationally recognized expert in suspect tactics, perimeter containment, search techniques, and foot pursuits.

This presentation's primary focus is for law enforcement officers, canine officers, road supervisors, and command staff.

This training includes a hamburger lunch.

Register on-line at www.itoa.org under the Training Calendar link.

Due to the anticipated overwhelming response to this training, do not delay in registering. Jack Schonely is the subject matter expert on this topic and seats have always filled quickly.

Cancellations due to unforeseen emergencies will only be accepted until Tuesday 01 May 2018 @1500 hours.

Due to the costs incurred by sponsoring this presentation, the food, venue and associated incidentals, a $50.00 per person fee will be assessed to the sponsoring agency for all no shows.

Jack's book on the subject can be purchased through Amazon by following this link:
